Welcome

We would like to welcome our children and families back after the Summer holidays. The children have made an excellent start to the term. It has been a pleasure to visit classes this week and see everyone engaging in their play and learning. In the coming weeks you will all have the opportunity to come into school, hear about your child's class routines, curriculum and ways you can support their learning this year. We are really excited to show you around and share some key messages with you all. It's been a great first week!
